

Helping educators understand the implications for school-site leadership of economics, racial, ethnic and cultural diversity

UCEA Center for the Study of School-Site Leadership

Directors - Stephen L. Jacobson, *University at Buffalo,
State University of New York*

Kenneth A. Leithwood, Ontario Institute for the Study of Education, University of Toronto

- A locus for the dissemination of information about the latest educational research concerning school-site leadership
- Collaborative research through partnerships between the center and the field
- Regular syntheses about the state of the art of leadership preparation and practice
- Data collection about the effectiveness of various leadership techniques
- Practical workshops on leadership development
- Annual summer conference on school-site leadership
- Host of the journal Leadership & Policy in Schools

www.oise.utoronto.ca/research/schoolleadership

UCEA Program Centers

Advancing research in educational administration by developing better methods of instruction and creating better information pathways