Annual Convention 2021
Virtual Content Review

Through our 2021 hybrid conference format, UCEA is offering several exciting ways to access sessions and be part of the conversation. Please see the information below for detailed guidance for accessing our virtual and hybrid session options.

Virtual Papers
Virtual papers will be presented as a standalone asynchronous, pre-recorded video presentations.

- Video recordings should be no more than 12 minutes.
- Presenters will receive a link to upload their video into Dropbox.
- Video uploads are due by October 15th.
- Videos will be uploaded and ready in Whova on or around November 8th.
- Presenters and all convention attendees are encouraged to engage in dialogue among the virtual papers by using the chat feature in Whova.
- Videos will not be uploaded into Whova until all presenters in the paper have registered for the convention.

Virtual Roundtables
Virtual roundtables will take place on Thursday, November 11 from 5:15 PM-6:30 PM ET.

- Virtual roundtables will take place in the roundtable feature within Whova.
- Virtual roundtables are scheduled to include three or four papers and each roundtable.
- Each roundtable can hold up to eight participants so there is room at each table for four or five participants in addition to the presenters.
- All virtual roundtable participants are required to be registered to access the Whova online platform.

Virtual Practitioner-Oriented Ignite Session
- This session will take place live on Thursday, November 11 from 3:45 PM to 5:00 PM ET in Whova. A Zoom link will be available.

General Sessions
- All general sessions and Awards Luncheon will be livestreamed through Whova during the scheduled times in the program.

Research Presentations
- All research sessions scheduled in Delaware A will be livestreamed through Whova during the scheduled times in the program.
- Group sessions are not eligible for virtual participation through Whova during the 2021 UCEA Convention.
